Semper Vigilans -- Always Vigilant

CAP, NEWS AT 11

CADET DAILY FOCUS

Cadet 1Lt. Marquel Rashard Coaxum was born on July 15, 1985. He has been a member of CAP for 3 years. Lt. Coaxum has been to 3 encampments, Para rescue Orientation Course, and 2 SC Wing encampments. He has received the General Billy Mitchell Award, and has been nominated for an award and a scholarship given by Who's Who among American High School Students because of academic excellence. He was nominated by the Civil Air Patrol. Lt. Coaxum is the commander of Echo Flight at Encampment 2001.

Lt. Coaxum is also a football player with Wando High School and this coming year he will be starting quarterback. He will graduate in 2003 and he hopes to enter the Air Force Reserve and attend University of Southern Florida. He hopes to become a Pilot in USAF Mobility Command. Hoo-ah.

Integrity

Integrity is the strict adherence to a code of conduct. "Honor" sums up integrity of character. Honesty, trustworthiness, dependability, and loyalty are characteristics that are expected of leaders and followers.

Encampment 2001 makes the news again this year as Channel 19 covers the encampment experience again. Last year the channel covered "A day in the life of an Encampment Cadet". This year, they will be filming the Encampment as it progresses thorough the week. The weekend news crew filmed drill on Saturday and plan to be back Sunday. The weekday crew plan to visit Tuesday for the repelling, Thursday and Friday. The news crew of one, Trevor Brown, said he was told exactly what time he needed to be out here to film drill by his producer since they had downloaded the entire Encampment schedule from the internet.

AIM HIGH

Classes, classes classes. That's all Sunday seemed to be. From moral leadership to Aerospace, Sunday has been one long class. In the afternoon the fun, awakening classes took place. With Col. Levesque doing Military organization and CAP-USA Relationship those classes were nothing but stern talking on "Attention to detail" and the encampments themselves showing the involvement of the Air Force with CAP.

Col. Levesque promised that when all cadets get their racks squared away and they start wearing their uniforms like they respect it he will let them have dessert.

Later two Air Force recruiters, Tech Sgt Farmer and Tech Sgt Wilsey came and told everyone why the Air Force is the best branch of the Military to go into.

In the Air Force all military personnel get full medical coverage and 30 days paid leave every year. There is so much available in the Military world and the Civilian world that people, including cadets, need to prepare now for what lies ahead. As the Air Force says: AIM HIGH!

CUSTOMS AND COURTESIES

Courtesy is simple politeness, civility, respect, and personal recognition of the rights of others. Customs are those things which must be done. Acts of courtesy and civility are NOT marks of inferiority or servility. They are indications that an individual appreciates the position and rights of another.

LET THE GAMES BEGIN

Flights squared off against one another during Saturday evening's sports events. The competition was varied. Flights competed in kick-ball, touch football, relay racing, and several variations of tug-of-war. The sports events are used to build team unity, spirit, and pride.

In big news Foxtrot beat Echo in tug-a-war. The sports events are scheduled to take place again Monday evening after dinner.

EATIN' IT UP

Hungry after a long day of drilling? Well, you're in luck. This week we have the privilege of working with Ms. Michelle Clancy, and Air Force Reservist Maj. Guilford

Major Guilford is an Air Force reservist and she is assigned to the Middle East Liaison Region. She wanted to come out and support the encampment and the cadets. She is assisting with the Female cadets, interacting with them in drill and ceremonies, and letting them know of the aspects of being a female in the Armed Forces. She says that her, "Primary purpose is to issue that the cadets are operating in a safe environment."

She is also helping in the mess hall and she will be assisting with the aspects of food preparation that would be too dangerous, due to sharp industrial style cutting blades, for the cadets to be around.

Ms. Michelle Clancy is a Cafeteria manager at Windsor Elementary. She came to this encampment because, "It's a good Challenge," and "I was recommended by Capt. Cheatham, my top man."

Those of you who are afraid of Cafeteria food Ms. Clancy says, "My main purpose is to have a good meal THREE times a day, every day."

As a person who has eaten the food they prepare I can tell you that you no one will, or should, starve.
